August 2017

Dear parents,

I wish all the parents a happy and prosperous Nuakhai. Māy you and your family always be blessed with the divine grace of Maa Samaleswari. Winter is approaching silently and the academic environment is hustling with activities. The term-I results are declared and the students have taken a right note from their performances to prepare methodically for their Council examinations. The time in their hands is very short. Hence they need to put the best of their efforts for a brighter and successful career. Any diversion at this stage would only result in late repentance. So I would like to urge the parents to motivate their wards to be more serious about their studies, have healthy food habits and maintain routine sleep duration.
